Foreword

At its annual meeting in June, 1926, the Augustana Synod (see Minutes page 154, par. 3) authorized the Board of Christian Education and Literature to have a new Sunday school hymnal published. The Board of Christian Education and Literature appointed as editors of the new Sunday school hymnal Rev. E. E. Ryden and Dr. C. A. Wendell, who have completed their work and report as follows:

"In compiling this Hymnal, the editors have been guided by two thoughts. First, they have endeavored to include in the collection a goodly number of the noble Lutheran chorals and other standard hymns of the Church, in order that the children may be trained to an appreciation of what is best in church hymnody. Secondly, they have been mindful of the danger of making such a volume as this too mature in contents, and therefore they have sought diligently for hymns of a lighter and happier vein that will appeal at once to the childish heart. However, even in the latter class of hymns, the editors have selected only music that is of a high standard, or Gospel hymns that have become accepted through long usage.

"Among the list of authors may be found not only the names of such great hymnists as Luther, Gerhardt, Wallin, Watts, Wesley, Heber, Lyte and Montgomery, but also such noted poets as Milton, Longfellow, Bryant and Whittier. And among the composers are found such names as Bach, Crüger, Nicolai, 'high priests of Lutheran church music,' as well as such famous musicians as Mendelssohn, Mozart, Gottschalk, Batiste, Schumann, Haydn, Händel, Beethoven and Brahms.

"The selection of a wide range of folksongs from various countries has added a cosmopolitan touch to the book. Included among these are appealing melodies from Swedish, German, Welsh, Thuringian, Dutch, Russian, Silesian and English sources.

The editors have also sought to compile a Hymnal that will, in addition to serving the Sunday school, prove useful and inspirational for Luther League and other parish organizations.

“Grateful acknowledgment is made to The Century Company, The Board of Publication of the United Lutheran Church of America, and Lamar & Whitmore for the free use of copyright hymns. The editors are also indebted to Professor Peter Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., for assistance in the editing and proofreading of the music. Care has been taken not to infringe upon any copyrights. If, however, such infringement has occurred, due credit will be given in future editions of this book.

“Thus we send The Junior Hymnal on its mission in the ‘ministry of song.’ May it inspire many hearts, young and old, to sing ‘the glories of the Lamb.’ ”

 What Thou, my Lord, hast suf - fered Was all for sin - ners' gain;
 Re - ceive me, my Re - deem - er; My Shep-herd, make me Thine,

Dis - hon - ored now Thou di - est, Yet here I wor - ship Thee.
 Mine, mine was the trans-gres - sion. But Thine the dead - ly pain.
 Of ev - 'ry good the Foun - tain, Thou art the Spring of mine! A - MEN.

4 What language shall I borrow
 To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
 For this Thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end!
 O make me Thine forever,
 And should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never,
 Outlive my love to Thee.

5 Forbid that I should leave Thee;
 O Jesus, leave not me;
 In faith may I receive Thee.
 When death shall set me free.
 When strength and comfort languish,
 And I must hence depart,
 Release me then from anguish
 By Thine own wounded heart.

1. A - las! and did my Sav - iour bleed? And did my Sov - 'reign die?
 2. Was it for crimes that I had done, He groaned up - on the tree?
 3. Well might the sun in dark - ness hide, And shut his glo - ries in,

Would He de - vote that sa - cred head For such a worm as I?
 A - maz - ing pit - y! grace un - known! And love be - yond de - gree!

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
 While His dear cross appears;
 Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
 And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
 The debt of love I owe;
 Here, Lord, I give myself away,
 'Tis all that I can do.

211. Our Wilful Hearts Have Gone Astray

Louis F. Benson, 1897
Ernest Edwin Ryden, 4th stanza, 1928

Traditional
Arr. by F. S. Hastings and Clarence Dickinson

1. Our wil-ful hearts have gone a stray; Our feet have wandered far a-way;
 2. O pa-tient eyes that saw us go! O care-less hearts to grieve Thee so;
 3. We fol-lowed far the way-ward will; Our eyes turned home from ev'ry hill;
 4. For-give that we have turned a-side; Our wea-ry hearts in Thee would hide;

O God, re-mem-ber not the day When we for-sook Thy Love.
 O feet how swift to leave, how slow When we came back to Love!
 They saw Thee waiting, watching still When we looked back to Love.
 What joy for-ev-er to a-bide In Thee, and know Thy Love! A-MEN.

William Batchelder Bradbury, 1849

1. Just as I am, with-out one plea But that Thy blood was shed for me.
 2. Just as I am, and wait-ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot,
 3. Just as I am, tho' tossed a-bout With many a con-flict, many a doubt,
 4. Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind; Sight, rich-es, heal-ing of the mind,

And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!
 To Thee whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!
 Fightings and fears with-in, with-out, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!
 Yea, all I need in Thee I find, O Lamb of God, I come, I come! A-MEN.

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
 Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
 Because Thy promise I believe;
 O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

6 Just as I am; Thy love unknown
 Hath broken every barrier down;
 Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
 O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Order of Service
and Responsive Reading for the Sunday School
Luther League
and Other Gatherings

Prefatory Remarks

That the Sunday school should be conducted in a reverent and devotional spirit is self-evident, but for actual worship the school should unite with the congregation in its regular Sunday morning worship. For this reason, and in order to get as much time as possible for instruction, we recommend that the greater part of the Order of Service for the Sunday School be omitted. In many places, however, this cannot be done. There may, for example, be a Sunday school but no congregation; or the congregation may not have the opportunity for public worship every Sunday. In such cases the Order of Service may well be used in full. Realizing that the Junior Hymnal is likely to be used not only in Sunday school but on various other occasions, we have inserted a number of Psalms for responsive reading; also portions of the holy Scriptures suitable for use on some of the special holidays.

Order of Service for the Sunday School

I. Order for Opening

After singing an appropriate Hymn, the School standing, the Superintendent shall say:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker, for He is our God.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

The Confession of Sins

Then the Superintendent and the School shall say:

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy lovingkindness: According to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, And cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions; And my sin is ever before me. Against Thee, Thee only, have I sinned, And done that which is evil in Thy sight. Hide Thy face from my sins, And blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; And renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence; And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me. (Ps. 51.)

Gloria Patri

The School shall sing:

The musical score for 'Gloria Patri' is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system contains the first two lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the next two lines. The lyrics are: 'Glo - ry be to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, And to the Ho - ly Spir - it; As it was in the be - gin - ning, Is'. The music features a variety of note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The final note of the piece is a whole note in the bass line.

Glo - ry be to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, And to the Ho - ly Spir - it; As it was in the be - gin - ning, Is

The Collect

Then the Superintendent shall say the following, or some other Collect appropriate to the day:

We beseech Thee, Almighty God, Heavenly Father, grant us a steadfast faith in Jesus Christ, a firm hope in Thy mercy, and a sincere love to Thee and to all our fellow men, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The School shall sing:

Lenten Season.

The Scripture Lesson

Then the Superintendent and the School shall read responsively the Scripture Lesson.

The Apostles' Creed

After the reading of the Lesson, the Superintendent and the School together shall say the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; The Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

A Hymn shall be sung, after which the Class Instruction shall begin.

II. Order for Closing

The Class Instruction ended, and the School having been called to order, a Lesson Review, or Questions on the Catechism may follow, after which Announcements shall be made.

A Hymn shall then be sung.

The General Prayer

The hymn ended, the School shall stand while the Superintendent shall say the following General Prayer (A free prayer may be offered):

O Lord, most loving and merciful Saviour, Who didst call little children to come unto Thee, and didst lay Thy hands upon them, look upon us, we humbly beseech Thee, and bless us, Thy children, dedicated to Thy service in Holy Baptism. Bestow upon us Thy saving grace, and help us to remember our Creator in the days of our youth. Teach us that the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.

Bless, O Lord, the instruction which we have received this hour, and grant that Thy precious Word may be so grafted into our hearts as to bring forth the fruits of righteousness, to the honor and glory of Thy name.

Teach us truly to believe in Thee, to love Thee with all our heart, to worship Thee and give Thee thanks, to obey Thy commandments, to reverence Thy holy Name and Word, and to serve Thee faithfully all the days of our lives.

Be gracious unto all of us. Preserve us from all danger. Deliver us from the power of the evil one and from the wickedness that is in the world. Defend us by day and by night. Unite us in the bonds of Christian love, and receive us at last unto Thyself in Thy heavenly kingdom. These and all things else necessary for us, and for the whole Church, we humbly beg in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Then the Superintendent and the School shall say:

Our Father, Who art in heaven: Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Benedicamus

The Superintendent shall say:

Let us thank and praise the Lord.

The School shall sing:

The musical notation is written on two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the lyrics 'Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord! Hal - le - lu - -' written below the notes. The notes are mostly quarter and half notes, with some rests. The final note is a long, sustained 'lu'.

Lenten Season.

Nürnberg Agende, 1639.

The Superintendent shall say:

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ,
And the love of God,
And the communion of the Holy Spirit
Be with you all.

The School shall sing:

Lenten Season.

Christmas

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she hath received of Jehovah's hand double for all her sins.

There shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit.

And the Spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah.

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears; but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young.

A bruised reed will he not break, and a dimly burning wick will he not quench.

He will not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set justice in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law.

Here the Superintendent may call upon some one to read Luke. 2. 1-20, having made arrangement for this some time before. If no such person is available, he may read it himself.

Easter

Some one who can read well, and who has previously been appointed for the purpose, should read Luke 24. 1-7. Then let the following be read responsively.

This is the day which Jehovah hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Give praise to our God, all ye his servants, ye that fear him, the small and the great.

Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ...Now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.

Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for Jehovah hath comforted his people, and will have compassion upon his afflicted.

Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more: the first things are passed away.

Whitsunday

(Pentecost)

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

*Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.*

Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will make a new covenant . . . I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it;

And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know Jehovah;

For they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith Jehovah:

For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sins will I remember no more.

I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh:

And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
And your young men shall see visions,
And your old men shall dream dreams:

Yea and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days

Will I pour forth of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

Here let some one read Acts 2. 1-4 and Ephesians 1. 17-19.

Thanksgiving

O thou that hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.

*Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it;*

The river is full of water:

*Thou providest them grain,
when thou hast so prepared the earth.*

Thou waterest its furrows abundantly;

Thou settlest the ridges thereof:

Thou makest it soft with showers;

Thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness;

And thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness;

And the hills are girded with joy.

The pastures are clothed with flocks;

*The valleys also are covered with grain;
They shout for joy, they also sing.*

Let some one now read Deuteronomy 8. 7-14 (ending with the word "God"); or 1 Chronicles 29. 11-13. An exceptional reader might make a lasting impression at this point by reciting the First Article of the Creed and Luther's Explanation; or the entire school might read or recite it in chorus.

PSALM 1.

The Righteous and the Wicked Contrasted.

BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
*Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers:*
But his delight is in the law of Jehovah;
And on his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
*That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also doth not wither;*

And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
The wicked are not so,
*But are like the chaff which the wind
driveth away.*
Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
*Nor sinners in the congregation of the
righteous;*
For Jehovah knoweth the way of the
righteous;
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 2.

The Reign of Jehovah's Anointed.

WHY do the nations rage,
And the peoples meditate a vain thing?
The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against Jehovah, and against his anoint-ed, saying,
Let us break their bonds asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
He that sitteth in the heavens will laugh:
The Lord will have them in derision.
Then will he speak unto them in his wrath,
And vex them in his sore displeasure:
Yet I have set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.
I will tell of the decree:
Jehovah said unto me, Thou art my son:

This day have I begotten thee.
Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
Now therefore be wise, O ye kings:
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
Serve Jehovah with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way,
For his wrath will soon be kindled.
Blessed are all they that take refuge in him.

PSALM 8.

Jehovah's Glory and Man's Dignity.

O JEHOVAH, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the
earth,
Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens!
Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings
hast thou established strength,
Because of thine adversaries,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work
of thy fingers,
*The moon and the stars, which thou hast
ordained;*
What is man, that thou art mindful of
him?
*And the son of man, that thou visitest
him?*
For thou hast made him but little lower than God,

*And crowned him with glory and honor.
Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet;
All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field.*

*The birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
O Jehovah, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the
earth!*

PSALM 9. 1, 2, 7-14.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving for God's Justice.

I WILL give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart;
*I will show forth all thy marvellous
works.*
I will be glad and exult in thee;
*I will sing praise to thy name, O thou
Most High.*
But Jehovah sitteth as king for ever:
He hath prepared his throne for judgment;
And he will judge the world in righteousness,
*He will minister judgment to the peoples
in uprightness.*
Jehovah also will be a high tower for the oppressed,
A high tower in times of trouble;

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee;
*For thou, Jehovah, hast not forsaken them
that seek thee.*
Sing praises to Jehovah, who dwelleth
in Zion:
Declare among the people his doings.
For he that maketh inquisition for blood
remembereth them;
He forgetteth not the cry of the poor.
Have mercy upon me, O Jehovah;
Behold my affliction which I suffer of them that hate me,
Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;
That I may show forth all thy praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in thy salvation.

PSALM 19.

The Works and the Word of God.

THE heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his handiwork.
Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night sheweth knowledge.
There is no speech nor language;
Their voice is not heard.
Their line is gone out through all the
earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.
His going forth is from the end of the heavens,
And his circuit unto the ends of it;
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul:
The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart:
*The commandment of Jehovah is pure,
enlightening the eyes.*
The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever:
The ordinances of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold,
yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.
Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
In keeping them there is great reward.
Who can discern his errors?
Clear thou me from hidden faults.
Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me:
Then shall I be upright,
And I shall be clear from great transgression.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in thy sight,
O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

PSALM 22. 22-31.

A Song of Praise.

I WILL declare thy name unto my brethren:

In the midst of the assembly will I praise thee.

Ye that fear Jehovah, praise him:

*And all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him;
And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.*

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;

*Neither hath he hid his face from him;
But when he cried unto him, he heard.*

Of thee cometh my praise in the great assembly;

I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied;

They shall praise Jehovah that seek after him;

Let your hearts live for ever.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto Jehovah;

And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is Jehovah's;

And he is the ruler over the nations.

All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship;

All they that go down to the dust shall bow before him,

*Even he that cannot keep his soul alive.
A seed shall serve him;*

It shall be told of the Lord unto the next generation.

They shall come and shall declare his righteousness

Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

PSALM 24.

The King of Glory Entering Zion.

THE earth is Jehovah's, and the fulness thereof;

The world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of Jehovah?
And who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood,

And hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation,

This is the generation of them that seek after him,

That seek thy face, even Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;

And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is the King of glory?

Jehovah strong and mighty,

Jehovah mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;

Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory?

Jehovah of hosts,

He is the King of glory,

PSALM 27.

A Psalm of Fearless Trust in God.

JEHOVAH is my light and my salvation;

Whom shall I fear?

Jehovah is the strength of my life;

Of whom shall I be afraid?

When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh,

Even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host should encamp against me,

My heart shall not fear:

Though war should rise against me,

Even then will I be confident.

One thing have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after:

That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah, all the days of my life,

To behold the beauty of Jehovah,

And to inquire in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion:

In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me;

He will lift me up upon a rock.

And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;

I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto Jehovah.

Hear, O Jehovah, when I cry with my voice;
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek.
 Hide not thy face from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:
 Thou hast been my help;
Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
 When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then Jehovah will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O Jehovah;
And lead me in the plain path, Because of mine enemies.
 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries:
For false witnesses are risen up against me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.
 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah
In the land of the living.
 Wait for Jehovah:
Be strong, and let thy heart take courage; Yea, wait thou for Jehovah.

PSALM 32.

Blessedness of Forgiveness and of Trust in God.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
 Blessed is the man unto whom Jehovah imputeth not iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile.
 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away
Through my groaning all the day long.
 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me:
My moisture was changed as with the drought of summer.
 I acknowledged my sin unto thee,
And mine iniquity did I not hide:
 I said, I will confess my transgressions unto Jehovah;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.
 For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:

Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.
 Thou art my hiding-place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;
Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.
 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:
I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.
 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding;
Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in,
Else they will not come near unto thee.
 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he that trusteth in Jehovah, loving-kindness shall compass him about.
 Be glad in Jehovah, and rejoice, ye righteous;
And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 34.

Jehovah a Provider and Deliverer.

I WILL bless Jehovah at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
 My soul shall make her boast in Jehovah:
The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.
 Oh magnify Jehovah with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
 I sought Jehovah, and he answered me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
 They looked unto him, and were radiant;
And their faces shall never be confounded.
 This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of Jehovah encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.
 Oh taste and see that Jehovah is good:
Blessed is the man that taketh refuge in him.
 Oh fear Jehovah, ye his saints;
For there is no want to them that fear him.
 The young lions do lack and suffer hunger;
But they that seek Jehovah shall not want any good thing.
 Come, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.
 What man is he that desireth life,

And loveth many days, that he may see good?
 Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.
 Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.
 The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.
 The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
 The righteous cried, and Jehovah heard,
And delivered them out of all their troubles.

Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart,
And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.
 Many are the afflictions of the righteous;
But Jehovah delivereth him out of them all.
 He keepeth all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.
 Evil shall slay the wicked;
And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.
 Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants;
And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

PSALM 42.

Thirsting for God in Trouble and Exile.

AS the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.
 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God?
When shall I come and appear before God?
 My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?
 These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,
How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.
 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
 Hope thou in God;
For I shall yet praise him
For the help of his countenance.
 O my God, my soul is cast down within me:

Therefore do I remember thee from the land of the Jordan,
And the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.
 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls:
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
 Yet Jehovah will command his loving-kindness in the daytime;
And in the night his song shall be with me,
Even a prayer unto the God of my life.
 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
 As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?
 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
 Hope thou in God;
For I shall yet praise him,
Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 46.

God the Refuge of His People.

GOD is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,
And though the mountains be shaken into the heart of the seas;
 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains tremble with the swelling thereof.
 There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
God will help her, and that right early.
 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
 Jehovah of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
 Come, behold the works of Jehovah,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.
 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;

*He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;
He burneth the chariots in the fire.
Be still, and know that I am God:*

*I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.
Jehovah of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.*

PSALM 51. 1-17.

A Contrite Sinner's Prayer for Pardon.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:
*According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.
Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
For I know my transgressions;
And my sin is ever before me.
Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in thy sight;
That thou mayest be justified when thou
speakest,
And be clear when thou judgest.
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.
Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward
parts;
And in the hidden part thou wilt make me to know wisdom.
Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
Make me to hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which thou hast broken
may rejoice,*

*Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.
Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy Holy Spirit from me.
Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with a willing spirit.
Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.
Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God,
thou God of my salvation;
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
O Lord, open thou my lips;
And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.
For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else
would I give it:
Thou hast no pleasure in burnt-offering.
The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.*

PSALM 67.

The Nations Exhorted to Praise God.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us,
*And cause his face to shine upon us;
That thy way may be known upon earth.
Thy salvation among all nations.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise thee.
Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
For thou wilt judge the peoples with equity,*

*And govern the nations upon earth.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise thee.
The earth hath yielded its increase:
God, even our own God, will bless us.
God will bless us;
And all the ends of the earth shall fear
him.*

PSALM 86. 1-12.

A Psalm of Supplication and Trust.

BOW down thine ear, O Jehovah, and answer me;
*For I am poor and needy.
Preserve my soul; for I am godly:
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.
Be merciful unto me, O Lord;
For unto thee do I cry all the day long.
Rejoice the soul of thy servant:*

*For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in lovingkindness unto all
them that call upon thee.
Give ear, O Jehovah, unto my prayer;
And hearken unto the voice of my sup-plications.*

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee;

For thou wilt answer me.

There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord;

Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; And they shall glorify thy name.

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:

Thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O Jehovah; I will walk in thy truth:

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;

And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

PSALM 98.

A Call to Praise Jehovah for His Righteousness.

OH sing unto Jehovah a new song;

For he hath done marvellous things: His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.

Jehovah hath made known his salvation: His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.

He hath remembered his loving-kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all the earth:

Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

Sing praises unto Jehovah with the harp; With the harp and the voice of melody.

With trumpets and sound of cornet

Make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; The world, and they that dwell therein;

Let the floods clap their hands;

Let the hills sing for joy together

Before Jehovah for he cometh to judge the earth:

He will judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with equity.

PSALM 111.

Jehovah Praised for His Goodness.

PRAISE ye Jehovah.

I will give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart,

In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

The works of Jehovah are great, Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honor and majesty; And his righteousness endureth for ever. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:

Jehovah is gracious and merciful.

He hath given food unto them that fear him:

He will ever be mindful of his covenant. He hath showed his people the power of his works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are truth and justice;

All his precepts are sure.

They are established for ever and ever; They are done in truth and uprightness.

He hath sent redemption unto his people;

He hath commanded his covenant for ever:

Holy and reverend is his name.

The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom;

A good understanding have all they that do his commandments:

His praise endureth for ever

PSALM 119. 9-16.

Meditations and Prayers Relating to the Law of God.

WHEREWITH shall a young man cleanse his way?

By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee:

Oh let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I laid up in my heart, That I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Jehovah:

*Teach me thy statutes.
With my lips have I declared
All the ordinances of thy mouth.
I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,*

*As much as in all riches.
I will meditate on thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.
I will delight myself in thy statutes:
I will not forget thy word.*

PSALM 122.

Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem.

I WAS glad when they said unto me,
Let us go unto the house of Jehovah.
*Our feet are standing
Within thy gates, O Jerusalem,
Jerusalem, that art builded
As a city that is compact together;
Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes
of Jehovah,
For an ordinance for Israel,
To give thanks unto the name of Jehovah,*

For there are set thrones for judgment,
*The thrones of the house of David.
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
They shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companions' sakes,
I will now say, Peace be within thee.
For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God
I will seek thy good,*

PSALM 145.

Jehovah Extolled for His Goodness and Power.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O King;
*And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
Of the glorious majesty of thine honor,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.
And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;
And I will declare thy greatness.
They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
Jehovah is gracious, and merciful;
Slow to anger, and of great lovingkindness.
Jehovah is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power;*

To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
*And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
Jehovah upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that are bowed down.
The eyes of all wait for thee;
And thou givest them their food in due season.
Thou openest thy hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
Jehovah is righteous in all his ways,
And gracious in all his works.
Jehovah is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.
He will fulfil the desire of them that fear
him;
He also will hear their cry and will save them.
Jehovah preserveth all them that love
him;
But all the wicked will he destroy.
My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah;
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.*

Send, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, Thy Holy Spirit into our hearts, that He may rule and direct us according to Thy will, comfort us in all our temptations and afflictions, defend us from all error, and lead us into all truth; that we, being steadfast in the faith, may increase in love and in all good works, and in the end obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name; and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Hymn shall be sung.

Order for Closing

A Hymn shall be sung.

The following Collect and the Lord's Prayer shall be said, all standing, and all uniting in the Lord's Prayer.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven: Hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
